SAMSUN

SAMSUN, is a city in Turkey on the Black Sea. It is about 200 miles (322 km) northwest of Ankara. Samsun is an important commercial center and is Turkey's second most important tobacco port. It also exports grain, wool, and hides and manufactures cigarettes.

Amlsos Hill

It is located 4 kilometers away from the city center. Since this is the first settlement in the region, it is very interesting and many people visit the hill every year. In Turkish. You will have the chance to see Samsun panorama in the hill which you will climb with lift. You can have a rest while enjoying the view of blue sea of Samsun.

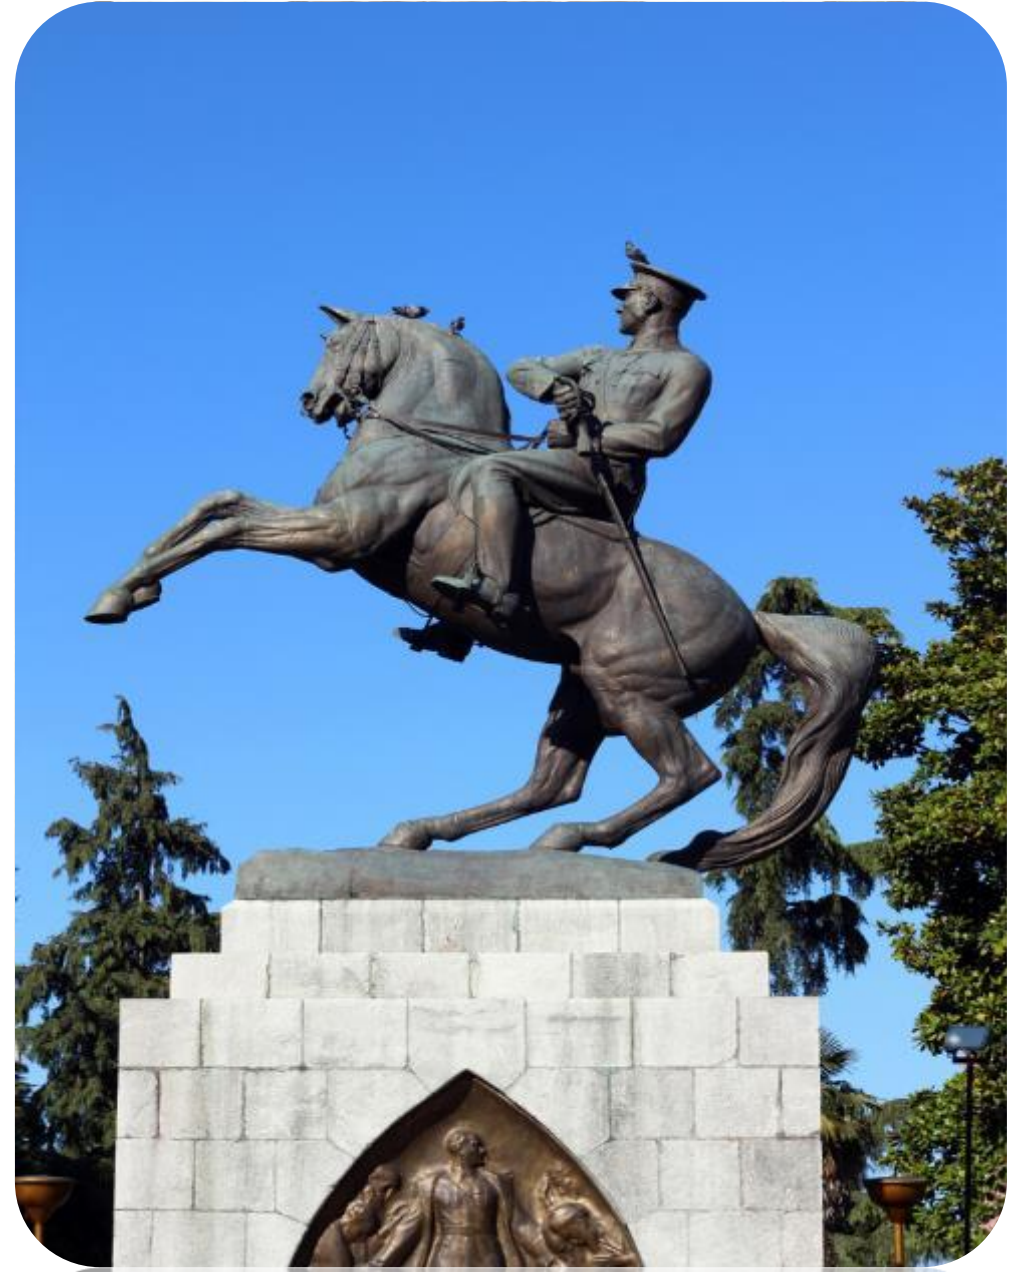

Bandırma Boat Museum

It went public in 2003, after 3 years of construction. It's theme is to show how Mustafa Kemal came to Samsun with Bandırma boat in 1919. It's designed to be exactly the same as the original one. You can see Mustafa Kemal's handwriting letters. You can visit Bandırma Boat Museum in the city center, at the coast if you want to learn about Samsun's and Turkey's near history.

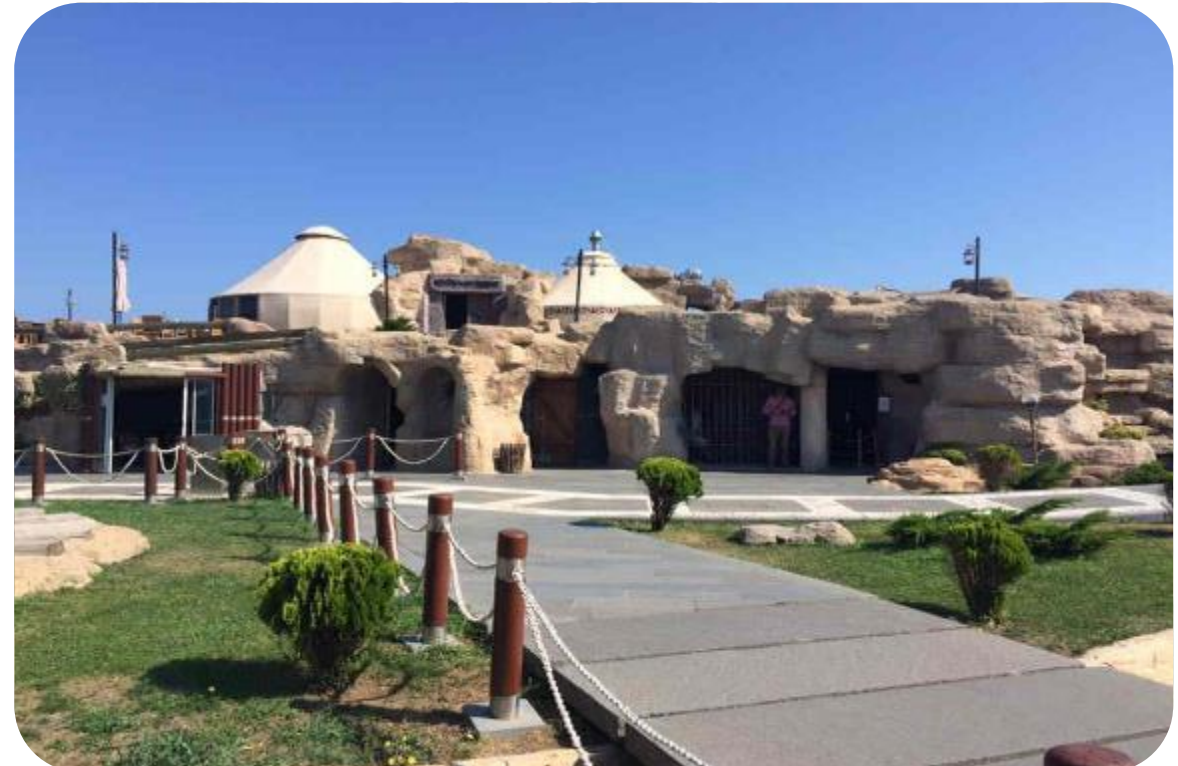

Samsun Atatürk Monument

Samsun Atatürk Monument is the most special icon of the city. It is located in the place where Mustafa Kemal stepped into Samsun from his boat for the first time. There are many different figures that were made in the memory of War of Independence. Being 8 meters tall, it was made by Austrian sculptor Heinrich Krippel. In front the monument there is text saying “Ghazi stepped into Samsun in 19 May 1919 to start the War of Independence in the nation.

Amazon Village

Known as a warrior women's settlement in old times, Amazon Village is located in Golyazı district of Samsun. According to a legend, women have one of their breasts cut to aim better while using bow, used to fight using bow, axe, sword etc. You can see some proves about their living in Amazon Village. You can visit this village in which you can find wax statues of Amazon women that Greek mythology also mentions.

Akdag Ski Resort

It is one of the best places to keep alive winter tourism in Samsun, located only 7 kilometers away from city center. If you are planning a trip in winter to Samsun, you must visit Akdag Ski Resort definitely. With an unmatched skiing ground, Akdag Ski Resort has 6 different tracks. Since it is not as crowded as some other ski resorts in Turkey, you can enjoy to the fullest while skiing. It is especially known as the best starting resort for the beginners.

Ghazi Museum

Even though it was first used as a hotel, the museum became a museum in 1940 and went public. This is the hotel when Mustafa Kemal stayed in his arrival at Samsun in 1919. After Atatürk's death, the hotel was turned into the Ghazi Museum. It is a location where you can feel the National Fight spirit to the fullest, since Samsun is the city where the fire of freedom set on fire. The most important thing about the museum is that the original text of Atatürk's 10th Year Anniversary Speech is kept here.

Tekkekoy Caves

First archeological studies has been done in 1941 in Tekkekoy Caves, which is 14 kilometers away from the city center. According to the studies, traces have been found from Paleolithic Age, Mesolithic Age and Bronze Age. Tekkekoy Caves is one of the oldest settlements where the city's history was discovered. Some statues around the caves are also very interesting. Additionaly, there is an ancient Greek village which was restorated in near time that you can visit and shoot great photos.
