

Famous Czech women

Vendula Teringlová, Adam Hejna, Adam Hric, Dana Němcová, Linda Kliková, Vanda
Kliková, Natálie Šindelářová, Nikola Malá, Viktorie Součková

Dana Drábová

Dana Drábová was born on 3rd of June 1961 in Prague. She is a nuclear physicist, politician and nowadays one of the most famous persons in the world of science. She studied at the Faculty of Nuclear Sciences and Physical Engineering on The Czech Technical University in Prague, field of dosimetry. Then, from 1994 to 2000, she completed doctoral studies in the field of nuclear physics. Since 1999, she has been a chairwoman of The State Office for Nuclear Safety. In 2013 she got an honorary degree Doctor honoris causa. The President Miloš Zeman gave her a medal for merit of the first degree.

Věra Jourová

She was born on 18th August 1964. She is a Czech politician, businesswoman and lawyer. She was the European Commissioner for Justice, Consumers and Gender Equality from 2014 to 2019. She's been the Vice President of the European Commission since 2019. She participated in creating laws, that protect people's personal data on the internet. She studied at the Faculty of Law and Arts at Charles University in Prague.

Ester Ledecká

She was born on 23th March 1995 in Prague. She is a professional snowboarder and alpine skier. She has achieved many successes, but her biggest one are two gold medals from the Winter Olympics in Pyeongchang in 2018.

